Philadelphia—Before leaving for his home early today to snatch a few hours sleep, Brigadier General Smedley Butler expressed satisfaction with conditions as he had found them at the end of the fourth day of his campaign to rid the city of vice and crime.

"We shall drive right along," said General Butler, "any knock that appears in the machinery will be taken out." He said he believed that most of the lawbreakers had been run out of the city and that the big job now was to keep them out.

Eight Are Impeached.

The general lost no time in filling the places of the six police lieutenants and two sergeants suspended yesterday when the end of the 48 hours limit they had failed to clean up their districts to his satisfaction. But he said, the replacements will have to show they mean business. "They also will be given 48 hours in which to clean up and if they don't do it, they will go up." Prophesied Quake Throws
Mexico City Population
into Frenzy of Terror

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Mexico City—(By Radio, via the Fort Worth Star-Telegram)—The revolution has been crowded from the public mind and the front pages of newspapers here in the last few days by the prophecy of a British prognosticator that Mexico City would be destroyed by an earthquake and volcano eruption Saturday.

Cabled reports of events of the outside world are being cited by believers of the prophecy. They point to front page displays of the extreme cold in the United States, storms off the 20th century roads in France, avalanches in the Alps, the recent earthquake disturbances in the states of Sonora and Chihuahua.

Many are preparing to leave the city on short notice. They expect to go to the suburbs to escape falling buildings.

The fear-stricken people here take as an ill omen the fact that the volcano Popocatepetl, overlooking the city, has been observed emitting smoke in the early mornings of the last few days. Coupled with the prophecy the action of the volcano has alarmed the superstitious classes.

In the Beloit-Iook County Cow Testing association there were 284 cows tested, of which number 46 produced above the 40 pound butterfat mark. Marie, a grade Holstein, in the Rockwell and Ketterhenry herd, made 185.1 pounds of milk, testing 3.9 for 72.2 pounds of butterfat. A grade Jersey, owned by Tews Brothers made 1294 pounds of milk, testing 3.7 for 65.7 pounds of fat.

William Lacy had high herd average for the month, his herd of grade Jerseys having an average production of 750 pounds of milk and 88.8 pounds of butterfat, and the herd of Holsteins was close behind with an average production of 1144 pounds of milk and 88.8 pounds of fat. The report of L. L. Scher, tester, follows:

GYPSY WARRIOR IS SOLD TO ILLINOIS SHORTHORN BREEDER

George D. Stocking, owner of a number of canning factories in Wisconsin and Illinois, residing at Waukesha, Ill., purchased a Shorthorn bull from the Shorthorn herd of Margaret Drew, Milton Junction. The animal was shipped Friday. The Gypsy Warrior bull has been in service at the Margaret herd for number of years and sire many of their high milk record helpers. The bull going to Illinois was sired by Imperial, a record bull, and is the dam.

Starting a registered Milking Shorthorn herd, Mr. Stocking purchased several foundation helpers at the International sale, one of them a Doris Clay daughter. The sale was made through the Rock county Livestock agent, Jack C. Nisbet, James L. "Tom" Nisbet, manager of the farm. Mr. Stocking was on the tour made inspecting several of the herds. At one time Mr. Stocking owned an interest in the Janesville canning factory.

BUREAU SHIPS IN CARS OF ALFALFA

More than 100 carloads of alfalfa have been shipped into Wisconsin during the past three months under supervision of the Wisconsin Farm Bureau federation, according to a statement made by L. M. Wright, state secretary. The alfalfa has been purchased chiefly in South Dakota. For alfalfa, the market has been very poor due to drought and other unfavorable conditions during the past season.

Arrangements are under way for shipping larger quantities into the state, Secretary Wright added. An application probably will be filed with the interstate commerce commission by the national timber department of the federation, asking joint air freight rates on such shipments, he said. One of the difficulties in bringing in shipments has been routing, it was stated.

The hay has been obtained for Wisconsin farmers at highly reasonable prices. The plan is one of the co-operative movements being undertaken by the state federation.

SEEK TO REOPEN CASE AGAINST TOBACCO POOL

Legal briefs were filed in the state supreme court this week concerning an appeal for a rehearing of the oral statement by attorneys on the recent proposal to reorganize the Northern Wisconsin Tobacco Pool. Whether the court decides again to hear the arguments will be announced before the middle of January. It is said that in case the court does not choose to reconsider its decision, the case will then be taken to the state and others to the United States supreme court at Washington for review.

SELECT 10 TEAMS FOR JUDGING PRIZE

Ten of the 21 high school stock judging teams that will compete in the state contest here, Feb. 29 and 23, have been selected, according to T. J. Newell, of the State College of Agriculture. The direct winners to date are: Milton, Ill., Dougallville, Marshfield, Elcoom, Holmen, Roberts, Hillsboro, Mazomanie and Oregon.

FOUR BAGERS ON THE DAIRY COUNCIL

Four Wisconsin men have been named to the board of directors of the National Dairy Council, which is letting the nation with the "Great Milky Way." They are: John Cunningham, of Racine county; A. J. Glover, Jefferson county; John LeFever, Milwaukee county; and Fred Pabst, Waukesha county.

W. A. Foster, manager of the council's St. Louis branch, is a native of Walworth county.

THE THREE "L's" FAVERED BY LACEY

The three "L's," lime, legumes and livestock, have replaced the three "R's," reading, writing and arithmetic, in the eyes of Green Lake county students.

Five years ago there were less than 100 tons of lime used on the dairy farms of Green Lake county, but now 3,000 and 4,000 tons are being used yearly. County Agent James Lacy reports that all of the lime used in the county during 1919 was spread on less than half a dozen dairy farms. With the coming of portable grinders and shearers, since that time the amount increased to nearly 2,000 tons in 1922. With the advent of a second portable grinder in 1923 the output was nearly doubled.

The discovery of several lime beds in Green Lake county has opened up a limitless source of agricultural lime and Lacy maintains that between 6,000 and 7,000 tons of the "miracle working stuff" will be used on the fields of the county during the coming year.

Due to dismal clover failures, Green Lake county dairymen are handicapped for a legume feed. Unless some emergency crop is grown

NEW GREEN STUFFS TO APPEAR SOON

More Southern Produce to Arrive Within Next Few Weeks.

Increases in quantities of green vegetables is promised within the next few weeks, as warmer weather becomes prevalent in the south. There are already many of the green varieties to be had, including lettuce, radishes, onions and peppers. Some summer fruits are also available, the Florida strawberries, which are well growing more rapidly this week than last.

Apples and oranges, the staple winter fruits, are unchanged in price since last week, except that lower prices on oranges are featured in some markets. Most dealers sell from 30 to 25¢ dozen, but in some cases the price is only 20¢. The quality of all is good, the difference in market value being largely due to size.

Baldwin apples are 5¢ pound or from $1.75 to $1.75 per bushel; Jonathan, 3 pounds for 25¢ or $2.25; and Delicious, 10¢ pound or $3.25 bushel.

Other fruits are: Lemons, 3 for 16¢; bananas, 12¢ pound; strawberries, 5¢ to 75¢ quart; grapefruit, 5 for 25¢ or 4 for 25¢; Tokay grapes, 12¢ pound; cranberries, 10¢ to 15¢ pound.

Potatoes Slightly Higher

Slightly higher prices on potatoes have taken effect this week, due to the difficulty in shipping in cold weather and to the natural shrinkage at this time of year. Dealers say the advance is natural, and that similar raises are noticeable about this time almost every year.

They now sell for 25¢ bushel or about 90¢ bushel with some markets lower.

Other Vegetable Prices

Other vegetables of the green kind are: peppers, 5¢ each; cauliflower, 20¢ to 50¢, according to size; head lettuce, 15¢ to 20¢; leaf lettuce, 30¢ pound; green onions, 10¢ bunch; spinach, 15¢ pound; radishes, 10¢ bunch.

Spanish onions sell for 3 pounds for 25¢ and the dry cooking variety at 5¢ pound. Carrots are 10¢ pound; rutabagas, 4¢ pound; turnips, 4¢ pound; sweet potatoes, 10¢ pound; celery, 10¢ to 15¢ stalk; cabbage, 4¢ pound; red cabbage, 7 to 10¢ pound; and parsnips, 6¢ pounds.

Eggs and butter remain the same as last week, with fresh eggs at 45¢ to 48¢ dozen and butter 5¢ to 57¢ pound.

TOFFVILLE

Two Fugitives Still at Large

Eugenio Riley, Janesville "done" ad- elict, who escaped from the state监狱 at Mendota several weeks ago when released to go walking with his wife, is still at large, so far as local police have been able to determine. He had not been located here and the legal authorities have sent no word that he has been located with the institution from any other city. John Keating, wanted here on a robbery charge, has not been seen since his escape capture by a policeman near the Fourth avenue bridge two weeks ago, police report.

AUTO SHOW DRAWS 600 FIRST NIGHT

Excellent Display of 1924 Models Featured—Interest in Prize Award.

With a paid attendance of 625 for the first night, the Janesville Auto show opened, Thursday, at the Skid building, corner of West Milwaukee and South Locust streets. For a first night and with inclement weather, the attendance was much greater than expected.

Visitors were impressed with the beautiful decorations that have transformed the two floors being used for the exposition. Every type of motor car and automobile display of 1924 models of automotive excellence was better than anticipated.

Considerable interest is being shown in the prizes of $100 in gold that will be given for the nearest guess to the total combined weight of all the cars on the show floor.

This will be determined at the close of the show Saturday night.

In addition to 50 motor cars of the various models and 20 booths given over to auto accessories, there are exhibits of oils, greases, radio, insurance and home accessories.

The automotive dealers of the city, under whose auspices the show is being held, are well pleased with the success of the show. They expect that the crowds will be much larger Friday, and possibly an overflow will be present Saturday. The show opens at 2 p. m. and closes at 11 p. m. each day.

Orchestra music is provided at night.

1-TEACHER SCHOOL DOOMED, ASSERTED

Modern, Consolidated School Coming Fast, Declares Kansas Educator.

Hayes, Kan.—Having assisted more than 70 communities in different forms of school organization work in the last four years, C. E. Rarick, head of the department of rural education of the Kansas State Teachers college of Hesston, found one day when the "1-teacher" district school of western Kansas will be a memory.

The isolated school building at country crossroads, he predicts, will have given way to the modern consolidated school in every county, with its rounded educational advantages, including music, domestic art and science, minimal training—in fact, the entire curriculum of the county seat town high school of the day.

In verification of his prophecy Mr. Rarick, who devotes his entire time to the development of rural education, points to several consolidated schools in northwestern Kansas already providing complete grade and high school courses that meet the approval of the state board of education.

Male Possible by Car.

The development of the consolidated school, with its modern equipment in every particular and its enriched courses of study, is made possible by motor transportation, Mr. Rarick explains. "In the schools we have assisted in organizing, 100 students are now in attendance. The average number of children taken from school daily is 5,885. The number of miles traveled last year was 592,328. In some localities the buses transport children who live 15 miles from their school. These buses made nearly 22,000 trips last year, and only 22 trips were missed, which is the best answer to the feasibility of this means of transportation."

Mr. Rarick says the number of "1-teacher" schools abandoned to make way for the consolidated schools is 20 and that the organization of the new type of schools has carried with it in each instance the necessity of better qualified teachers.

Twenty-five of these 70 schools were organized in localities where there were no high schools and very little, if any, secondary school work," says Mr. Rarick. "There are enrolled in these schools 1,615 students who, without the new organization, would be denied the privileges at home of any high school training whatever. There are also 2,339 pupils enrolled in the grades."

If We Were Going to Offer a Prize—

If the Gazette were to offer a $100,000 prize for something worth while in this world we would stick right here in America for our subject. We would ask that writers present some real plan for aiding in many causes, notably—

How to make Americans feel the responsibility of American citizenship and register their votes at all elections and not leave the settlement of political and economic questions to representatives who have been elected by small minorities of voters?

What shall be done to instill a spirit of respect for law and peace at home?

How it may be possible for every man, woman and child in the United States to be able to read and write so that they may be informed on all public questions without taking information
from some one interested in spreading propaganda?

How we may so solve the economic questions confronted by the farmers of the nation so that they will have a stable market and no longer be under the necessity of selling farm crops at a price fixed by the buyer contrary to the law of successful industry and manufacture?

How we can continue as a nation with national pride, while at the same time we have so many theorists who want us to become a part of a super federation of the world and bear all the troubles of mercenary races and governments from which we fled three centuries ago in order to be removed from just such influences and restrictions?

These are a few of the questions which we might have answered for the benefit of America and Americans. We wouldn't be a "Little American"; we would be a "Big American." Why spend so much time on Europe? Every breeze from Europe blows us more and more propaganda. The child at our doorstep needs our care and we are looking off to far fields.

Our citizenship is on the verge of failure. If we do not have a higher regard for it. Our own business suffers, not from the fact that King George of Greece is forced to live on relatives in Bucharest or somebody takes a pot shot at Kemal Pasha, but because the farmer who has products to sell must take what he is offered while the steel in the auto, the socks on his feet, the crowbar leaning against the woodshed door, the sewing machine in the living room, the flour in the barrel, the dog collar, and the patent drinking cups for poultry—all and everything else he buys, is sold to him at a price fixed by the manufacturer and retailer, cost and profit added. The victorian who sits up nights writing an academic piece about international comity and world justice sees only the cold snow on top of the mountain and nothing of the fertile valleys between.

Dear Old Colonel Mulberry Sellers, who was created by Mark Twain and Charles Dudley Warner, in The Gilded Age would be having the time of his life could he have lived in the now.
There was no coal and no wood so Col. Sellers placed a lighted candle within the stove and through the mien on the doors it looked as though a bright fire burned within. Mr. Bok and his jury have given the International stove a candle but what we want in America is a real glow of warmth.

There was a great oversight in the peace plan
in not arranging to stop Hiram Johnson from declaring war.

The Recapture Decision.

By the decision of the supreme court of the United States, that part of the transportation act which provides that half the excess earnings over six per cent be recaptured for a revolving fund to be used in making loans to roads which earn less than six per cent has been upheld. This clause was attacked by a road in Texas which had earned $ per cent and wanted to keep it all, bringing suit in which many of the larger roads joined.

A number of assaults have been made on this act but in each case the court has sustained
the law. This part of the act was designed originally to keep the roads from making excessive profits through high freight rates and in itself was to have acted as a regulator in the interest of the shipper. It seemed ill advised in the beginning since no road was earning over six per cent and most of them far less. The decision will have a tendency to still further induce the interstate commerce commission to adjust freight rates on roads which have high earning advantages. The decision will also be an inducement to keep rail earnings down to six per cent.

NEED NEGRO DOCTORS

BY FREDERIC J. HASKIN.

Washington.—A great lack of doctors and dentists is one of the serious handicaps of the colored population of this country, according to Dr. J. S. Durkee, president of Howard University. The scarcity of general practitioners for the white population in many sections of the United States is well-known. The still more serious negro situation is not so widely advertised.

Statistics show that whereas there is one white doctor to every 563 white persons, there is only one colored doctor to every 3,194 colored persons. A similar comparison of dentists shows the same shortage. There is a dentist to every 2,070 of the white population, but only one to every 23,500 of the colored.

These figures become really significant when you know that the colored death rate in the United States is 17 to each 1,000, or 70 per cent higher than the white death rate. The undertaking business is consequently flourishing in colored communities. In the last 10 years, the number of colored undertakers has increased 60 per cent.

Given the opportunity of obtaining the necessary education and attending medical schools, the number of colored physicians, dentists, and nurses necessary to render every medical assistance to their own people would be created. Thus would a question of grave moment to the health and welfare of the entire population of the United States be solved.

During the past year, Howard University raised $275,000 as an endowment for its medical school.
With $250,000 added by the General Education board, the school will be insured of some income for laboratory equipment and clinical opportunities, and can retain its "Class A" standing, which it could not have done without the income from such a fund. Congress is now being asked for an appropriation of $500,000 to construct and equip an addition to the medical and dental school. The proposed appropriation would permit the university to double its enrollment of medical and dental students.

Busy Man's Sport Page

BY FRANK SINCLAIR

FROM 55 cities of Wisconsin the greatest gang of football boosters in the world are starting swarming into Janesville within two weeks. With 572 five-man teams entered from outside of the city, there will be 2,805 men come here if the figure of just five men to a team were taken, but if substitutes are counted there will be 3,436 leggers. Some of these extras will not make the trip, but each town that makes the journey to the Bowery city will have 100 to 120 men, so that a figure of 3,500 visitors is a fair estimate for the five weeks of the huge classic. Six men will come with many teams in order to pair in doubles. Fond du Lac will be represented with many additional according to their present plans. Just slightly less than half of these visitors will come here from Milwaukee, making the jaunt in special buses and special trains at special reduced rates of fare.

THESE are a week yet before the tournament gets under way. The writer took out his book of clippings last night and began doing a little figuring. So far there have been 150 stories printed on the tourney, not including more than 100 published by the Gazette. The 150 yards are those that have been clipped in the electric news from papers in Wisconsin and Illinois, but there are a number of papers that have not been seen. Fifty percent of the publicity has originated in the Gazette office and distributed by Associated Press telegraph and mail service.

SO FAR as may be estimated, the stories published outside of Janesville have totalled about 60,000 words. With others that have been printed, there have been far above 100,000 words written about the meet with the names of specific mentioned in headlines and in stories time and time again. When the meet gets under way rough estimates of the stories that will be published in Wisconsin place them at not less than 1,100 with possibilities of 1,500. The publicity that will be printed should be ample for calculation. When this meet has been over, it may be safely estimated that more than a million words will have been written about the state tourney in Janesville. If these words were set in solid type, without any headlines, they would make 835 solid columns of reading matter, or a newspaper of 104 pages of eight columns each with solid reading matter. Stretched out, this publicity would make a strip one column wide, and 5,567 feet long or a mile and 257 feet.

IMPROVED STYLE TO BE DISPLAYED BY HOME OUTFIT

With vacation out of the way Janesville high school will resume its basketball schedule when Stoughton trotts upon the floor here Friday night. The contest will start at 7:30 p. m. and will be held in the gymnasium of the new high school on South Main street.

A fast scramble is expected between these outfits. Both Janesville and Stoughton have defeated Evansville, with the Hub having perhaps a little the advantage.

During the past week, Coach Gibbons has been going over the points of weakness of his boys, as demonstrated in the preliminary contests of the closing weeks of the year. It begins to appear that the team work has improved and that the defense has tightened into something more powerful. The Blues in practice are not leaving so many uncovered shots.

Palmer and Folsom will probably be seen as forwards for Janesville Friday night. Eichmeler will be at center and Knipp and Austin at guard. Teal and Clark may get a chance at forward and Hallett and Zilch at guard when the game is finished.

George Berg, football trainer at the University of Wisconsin, will referee, and Joe Leary will umpire. The Milton freshmen and the Janesville seconds will play in a preliminary, three quarters of which will be before the regular contest and the last quarter between halves.

Beloit College Loses Connell, But Wins, 30-28

Beloit—Handicapped without the services of Capt. Johnny Connell, Beloit's star forward, declared ineligible because of scholastic standing two hours before the starting whistle, the Gold basketball quintet took a hard fought contest from Hamline university here Thursday night, 30 to 28. The score at the half stood 23 to 10 for Beloit. Connell is lost for the season. Weigert, Rockford, replaced him.

Hamline scored a basket and two free throws before Beloit got under way. Vonarschik, new regular this year and Weigert, put Beloit on top.

With but three minutes to play before the end of the first half, Coach Mills inserted a new team which held Hamline to one long shot basket.

There still is time to make some essential shifts if the bowlers get a hurry on them.

Richards asks that every team captain make it his business to see that his team is filled with bowlers who will face the matter in mind, etc., etc., etc., and makes a good case.

The challenger recently completed a vaudeville tour, begun shortly after the Shelby go.

Janesville Chart for Bowling Meet Is Now Available

A copy of the schedule for the 613 Janesville teams to roll in the 22nd annual Wisconsin state bowling tournament to open here on next Friday and continue for 31 days has been placed at the Grebe & Newman newsroom. E. Richards, secretary of the Janesville Bowlers association, requests that where changes are desired by the leggers they get in touch with the alleys or with him.

Hamline formed a new defense and offense in the second half and Hartup, left forward, won with and down in baskets from all points on the floor. The team played faster ball and foul was frequent.

With a minute to go and the score 30 to 28 in the Gold's favor, Hartup brought the score to within two points of the Beloit team on a long shot.

Beloit opened up its third great season of basketball with the Hamline game. The Gold has won the state and midwest conference titles the past two years. Indications point to Beloit being a strong contender again.

It is expected that Bill Fenlon of Milwaukee, state secretary, will arrive in Janesville the early part of next week to set up his headquarters here. Present plans are that his office will be on the main floor of the tournament building where he will also have the "bull pen" for the checking of bowlers and the weighing of balls.

The alleys will be closed down toward the middle of next week and put into first class condition for the start of the classic.

Fond du Lac, which is bidding for the 1925 tournament, has been given two days on the Janesville drivers. The Fondys will come here on Jan. 23 and 24.

Jan. 25 will be Fond du Lac Day.

It will also be the day for the annual meeting of the Wisconsin Bowling association and at that time the state executive committee will meet and ballot on the tournament city for next year.

The Fond du Lac Association of Commerce, the Lions, Rotary and Kiwanis clubs of that city have been invited to meet in Janesville for the classic. Each of these clubs will come to Janesville with big delegations and ready to pledge a big entry from Fond du Lac and the Fox River valley for 1925.

Cunningham has shipped 45,000 pounds by express to Chicago and Milwaukee. Twenty thousand pounds have been shipped by freight to Philadelphia and New York, which will take the fish in unlimited quantities.

A preliminary game will be played between the local H. Y. and the high school seconds.

The fish are so hard that one person made to Milwaukee in boxes without ice when put into tanks upon arrival started swimming.

Cunningham has halted operations because of weather conditions.

Big Carp Haul Here

Sixty-five thousand pounds of carp and other rough fish have been netted in Rock river between Indian Ford and the lower dam at Janesville by a crew working for Gerald Cunningham of this city. A 400-foot net is being used with a launch and flat boats. Hauls have run all the way from 500 pounds to seven and one-half tons, with an average of one-half ton.

VOTE IS REVOLT AGAINST RAIL ACT

Cummins Defeat for Committee Chairmanship Not Personal Turndown.

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright 1923, by Janesville Daily Gazette

Washington—Defeat of Senator Albert Cummins of Iowa for the position of chairman of the Senate committee on interstate commerce is nothing more nor less than a revolt against the transportation act known as the Esch-Cummins bill, because of the part the Iowa senator played in its making.

The overthrow of the veteran representative senator who by all customs and rules of seniority prevailing in Congress should have held that position, but as his party had a majority is not due to any dissatisfaction on personal grounds. If it were, the combination of insurgents with the democrats who brought about Mr. Cummins' defeat for the chairmanship of his committee could just as well have been applied in preventing the election of the Iowa senator to the much coveted position of the presidency of the Senate itself.

Some of Mr. Cummins' best friends in the west voted against him, contending that their fight was one of principle rather than personality. The insurgents are composed largely of senators from the agricultural states where the feeling prevails in many quarters that the rail transportation act lies the hands of the interstate commerce commission and prevents the latter from ordering reductions in freight rates on farm products. The so-called earning clause of the act is held responsible for the maintenance of high freight rates and many members of the insurgents are compelled in the 1922 elections to defend his vote on that act. Men who were elected on such a platform could not consistently support Mr. Cummins who they said for the chairmanship of the very committee wherein new railroad legislation either repealing or amending the present law must be framed.

Sole Democratic Chairman
The election of Senator Smith of South Carolina, democrat, to the chairmanship of the Senate committee only denotes to hold an important committee chairmanship—does not bestow on the democratic party any responsibility, nor does it assure a reversal of the transportation act by the radical forces in the Senate. It is simply a truce and a form of protest against the Esch-Cummins act. It is a recognition of the strength of insurgent republicans and the fall strength of the democratic party in the Senate will occur again in the present session. On most other issues the democrats are themselves divided. The party strategy at the moment, was for the democrats to hold lines taut and vote for their own candidate for another term. The acquisition of conditional votes making the election of Senator Smith possible was one of the accidents of a peculiar situation.

It is an odd turn of fate that Mr. Cummins who in 1912 was one of the insurgent group whose activities led to the development of platform for a third party was probably the victim of a insurgency originating from his own section of the country.

Unsettled Line
As a matter of fact Senator Smith is not a radical. He will preside over the committee in a judicial manner since he owes his election to the votes of two parties. A committee chairman can sometimes sidetrack legislation, but with important bills, his power of doing so is of dubious value. Indeed, Mr. Cummins still remains a member of the interstate commerce committee and can wield by his vote as much influence now as he could have with the chairmanship in his possession. The only significance the whole incident has is to serve warning to those who have been trying to bury railroad legislation this session that the insurgents will not permit the issue to slumber.

Freight Traffic Becomes Lighter Due to Weather

Cold weather brought extra work to the employees of the St. Paul roundhouse, with an average of four locomotives being brought in each day with from four to six carloads of sand was used by the local switch engines during the week. The average use of sand is confined to two cars a month during the winter, but the slippery rails forced the use of additional sand to make footing for the locomotives. No engines were pulled off the tracks by breakdowns.

With the completion of the new sugar factory expansion and the closing down of two sand and gravel works, two St. Paul switch crews were taken off, making a total of six switchmen and four engineers out of work—one crew last Thursday and one crew Tuesday.

Freight is coming through slowly, with loadings in the lead. A total of 50 carloads of stock from the General Point division came through Janesville Wednesday. Coal is coming in slowly, due to the dealers being well stocked.

MULLERS ARRIVE IN PITTSBURGH

JEFFERSON COUNTY

FT. ATKINSON

Mid-Winter Eastern Trip of 732 Miles Completed
Without Mishap.

Starting from here in the worst snowstorm of the season, on the last day of December, Pastor G. J. Muller
and his wife, Mrs. H. C. Muller, of St. Peter's Lutheran church and family arrived in Pittsburgh the following day. The trip of 732 miles was received by the Gazette Thursday.
Mr. Muller reports that after reaching Columbus, O., the road was clear of snow and they had fair weather.
The trip of 732 miles was made in five days.

"We came through safely to Pittsburgh, arriving 11:30 a.m. at our house," writes Pastor Muller.

"We drove 732 miles on our trip.
We left Eaton, O., Thursday morning, with about two inches of snow on the ground. Under the snow was steel, but with chains on our speed was the same as on a clear road. We passed through Dayton, Springfield and Columbus. At the time we reached Columbus the road was bare and the remainder of the day we drove without chains.

"By the time we reached Zanesville, O., we were in the midst of the hills. From on into Pittsburgh the road was a grand succession of hills and curves, and more curves and hills. Wisconsin is nothing like it.
Even Michigan is not with the hills and curves and grades we met. It was a regular combination shoot the chutes and roller coaster."

"But we came through safely, landing in Wheeling at 8 p.m. with 267 miles to our credit. This left 65 miles for our last day into Pittsburgh. The road followed the steel, concrete or macadam, the whole time not the shortest, but it is in good condition. Anyone driving east and wishing a few thrills can find them on the hills of southern Ohio.

"While we had snow two days and zero one day, our trip was made without hindrance or delay. We had no bad driving or trouble, nor any breakdowns.

"We corrected the lack of time for sight seeing in the cities we passed through. Usually we were kept busy dodging traffic or the holes in the streets, for the only place we had bad roads was inside the city limits.
Now we have a smooth going we know we've got in the way.

"Our household goods came through the day before we arrived. By Saturday we were partly settled in our house. On Sunday we had 5 degrees below zero weather. What did James Ward?

"Sunday I will meet Pastor Pierson and give him my greetings from his Janesville friends. He is located on the opposite side of the city from me."

TEACHERS TO HEAR

Southern Wisconsin Teachers' association here, Feb. 15 and 16, under
